

CoinDesk Indices Announces May 2025 Reconstitution Results and Methodology Update for the CoinDesk Memecoin Index

April 16, 2025 – CoinDesk Indices (“CDI”) announces May 2025 reconstitution results and methodology update for the CoinDesk Memecoin Index. Reconstitution results are based on data from April 14, 2025 and will be implemented at 4 p.m. Eastern Time on April 30, 2025.

Methodology Update

CoinDesk Indices issued a consultation on March 25, 2025 seeking feedback on a proposal to remove the requirement that a memecoin must have been launched, or trading if no launch date exists, for a minimum of 90-days to be eligible for inclusion in the index.

There was no feedback unsupportive of this proposal. The Index Committee has approved the proposal and has removed the 90-day requirement. This change is reflected in the monthly reconstitution results below and a revised methodology has been published.

Reconstitution Results

The following table provides a summary of additions and deletions to the CoinDesk Memecoin Index.

Table 1: Summary of Additions and Deletions¹ and Target Weights
